ADDENDUM B TO RESUME OF SERVICE CAREER
EXPLANATION OF COMMAND EQUIVALENCY (OPTIONAL)

THOMAS EDWARD JEFFERSON, Colonel, Engineer (USAR)

A. Position/assignments (military and civilian) submitted for consideration as equivalent to battalion commander or higher.

Indicate the amount of time you served in each position to the right of each entry.

1. List assignment such as assistant division commander, chief of staff, commander of a brigade in the Total Army School System, or duty of a command authorized a general officer, which you believe should be considered as experience equivalent to command.
2. Identify key assignments or civilian experience for consideration as equivalent to command experience.
3. Officers serving in one of the special branches without command opportunities will identify assignment of significant responsibility or other civilian experience which attests to the officer's technical expertise, executive level experience or achievement within the profession.

B. Justification

Here you must explain why you feel the positions you listed above are equivalent to battalion command or higher. In all cases, you must structure your explanation so that the experience you are using as command equivalent ties into what a battalion, brigade or group commander would do in the United States Army Reserve.

* Command experience as battalion level or higher which totals two years for command in the Reserve Components or one year of such command while serving in the Active Component.
